

invite applications for the post of

Part-time Parish Clerk & RFO

to commence on July 1st, 2017.

This is an interesting and varied post, worked mainly from home, supporting an increasingly active parish council.

The position involves working closely with the Chair to produce the agenda and budget and take minutes for our evening meetings (usually 4-6 times a year), all correspondence and financial accounts and manage parish noticeboards.

Although, previous experience is desirable, the successful candidate's flexibility, and positive, can-do attitude, and good interpersonal skills are more important. Good literacy, numeracy and IT skills are required as well as a willingness to attend relevant training courses and continue professional development.

Salary negotiable, 4 hours per week on average. The parish council supplies a laptop and printer for carrying out the council's work.

A job description and person specification are available to download from <http://mintingandgautby.co.uk/parish-council>

Application letter with curriculum vitae, should be sent to:

mintingandgautbyparishcouncil@gmail.com

Deadline to apply is 1st June 2017, and interviews will be as soon as possible thereafter.

3. To ensure that the Council's obligations for Risk Assessment are properly met.
4. To prepare, in consultation with appropriate members, agendas for meetings of the Council and Committees. To attend such meetings and prepare minutes for approval. Other than where such duties have been delegated to another Officer.
5. To attend all meetings of the Council and all meetings of its committees and sub-committees. Other than where such duties have been delegated to another Officer or member.
6. To receive correspondence and documents on behalf of the Council and to deal with the correspondence or documents or bring such items to the attention of the Council. To issue correspondence as a result of instructions of, or the known policy of the Council.
7. To receive and report on invoices for goods and services to be paid for by the Council and to ensure such accounts are met. To issue invoices on behalf of the Council for goods and services and to ensure payment is received.

8. To study reports and other data on activities of the Council and on matters bearing on those activities. Where appropriate, to discuss such matters with administrators and specialists in particular fields and to produce reports for circulation and discussion by the Council.
9. To draw up both on his/her own initiative and as a result of suggestions by Councillors proposals for consideration by the Council and to advise on practicability and likely effects of specific courses of action.
10. To monitor the implemented policies of the Council to ensure they are achieving the desired result and where appropriate suggest modifications.
11. To act as the representative of the Council as required, and to issue notices and prepare agendas and minutes for the Parish Meeting: to attend the assemblies of the Parish Meeting and to implement the decisions made at the assemblies that are agreed by the Council.
12. To prepare, in consultation with the Chair, press releases and articles on behalf of the Council for the newsletter about the activities of, or decisions of, the Council.
13. To attend training courses or seminars on the work and role of the Clerk as required by the Council.
14. To continue to acquire the necessary professional knowledge required for the efficient management of the affairs of the Council: Membership of your professional body The Society of Local Council Clerks will be paid for by the Parish Council.
15. To attend the Conference of the National Association of Local Councils, Society of Local Council Clerk's, and other relevant bodies, as a representative of the Council if required by the council.

Minting and Gautby Parish Council – May 12th, 2017

Duties of a Responsible Financial Officer

To comply with the Account and Audit Regulations 2003, it is the responsibility of the RFO to ensure that proper financial controls are set up within the council and enforced. This means proposing and agreeing the council's own Financial Regulations, keeping records in accordance with the 1996 Regulations, establishing measures which prevent and detect fraud and identifying the duties of all personnel dealing with finance.

It is particularly important for the RFO to monitor income and expenditure against the budget, to check that all income due is actually received, to establish procedures for tackling bad debts and to make sure that expenditure is properly authorised before payment.

The RFO should therefore:

- Prepare a draft annual budget in conjunction with the Chairman for consideration by the council

- Present financial reports to the council during the year to monitor the budget and fund balances
- Ensure that all money due to the council is billed and collect promptly
- Arrange for all money received to be banked regularly
- Control payments by cheque
- Maintain a register of property and assets
- Complete and balance the year end accounts as prescribed by the Regulations and submit them to the council for approval
- Produce accounts and records for external audit in accordance with the Regulations
- Make prompt payment of PAYE, tax and National Insurance and prompt submission of VAT returns
- Manage insurance risk
- Regulate cash flow and control investments and bank transfers

The following are examples of the day-to-day tasks required to carry out the specific responsibilities listed above:

- Receiving correspondence, paper and electronic, circulating to councillors, replying or referring to chair. Filing.
- Answering residents' queries.
- Keeping noticeboards up to date, inc printing out material sent by LCC/ELDC. Keeping file of all parish council paperwork once it has been removed.
- Working with the Chair to prepare meeting agendas and serving paperwork to legal timescales.
- Taking minutes at parish council minutes and preparing draft minutes together with the Chair for publication online within 30 days of meeting. Keeping original signed minutes in minute book as permanent record.
- Preparing all paperwork for each meeting, including spreadsheet of finances and cheques to be paid. Circulating all relevant meeting paperwork to councillors.
- Following up after meetings depending on decisions taken, such as reporting planning decisions to ELDC, sending off cheques etc.
- Reporting highway defects to LCC and following up Facebook, general advertising of parish council and local events and information.
- Reading ELDC/LCC/government consultations as they arrive and with Chair, summarising lengthy ones for councillors to make decisions on.
- Preparing paperwork for Annual Parish Meeting.

- Attending evening meetings as required, such as local area forum meetings, those called by ELDC/LCC etc.
- Attending training sessions to keep up to date with legislation and best practice. Become a member of the Society of Local Council Clerks (SLCC).
- Participation in emergency plan.
- RFO duties:
 - Keeping finance file of bank statements, invoices, bank reconciliation etc.
 - Monthly entry of clerks wages reporting via HMRC website, by legally required deadline. Audit. Working with the Chair to prepare a draft budget for consideration at the November meeting.
 - Providing legal advice to the Council and ensuring that the Council operates legally.
